

Walk 6 - Yealmpton / Brixton Circular - about 3 miles

1. From Bakery Square go right and cross the A379 via the Zebra crossing and up Yealmbury Hill
2. Go left through a gate (Blyth Knoll) with a footpath sign
3. Follow the path uphill until Bowden Hill, turn left look for a footpath signpost on the right
4. Turn right and follow the marked path through gates and fields until you come to a gate at the top of a hill
5. Cross the field going diagonally downhill and cross a stile into a lane
6. Turn left to Gorlofen following the route of the Devon Coast to Coast (C2C) path
7. Pass Gorlofen Lodge, a picturesque thatched cottage, on your left
8. Continue downhill and cross Silverbridge Lake – the stream that is the boundary between Yealmpton and Brixton parishes
9. Continue uphill and pass 3 driveways with gates on your right just beyond the 3rd you will see on your left a footpath signpost
10. Follow the route signed up the steps and follow the path which is well waymarked and signposted
11. Continue through woodland then over a stile and into a large field Follow the signs uphill quite steeply to start with and then across the field diagonally to a gap in the far corner
12. Continue round the edge of a wood on your left and through another, wide, gap where you turn right downhill to a small stream which you cross
13. Now you are in a large steep field of grass (cattle maybe in it) and you walk up it diagonally
14. Eventually you arrive at a stile beyond which is a fairly level path across a field
15. The end of this path coincides with the Brixton end of Silverbridge Way which you now turn left onto, leaving the C2C route
16. Silverbridge Way, opened in 2013, is a wide unmistakable path 0.8 miles long
17. You will emerge onto the pavement along the A379 continue back into Yealmpton & Bakery Square
